

Troy Quinn, Biography

troyaquinn@gmail.com, www.troyquinn.com

Emmy-nominated conductor Troy Quinn has quickly established himself as one of his generation's most versatile young artists. Lauded for his energetic and riveting, yet sensitive conducting, Quinn is in his eighth season as Music Director of the Owensboro Symphony in Kentucky. He is also in his seventh season as Music Director of the Venice Symphony in Florida and serves concurrently as the Pops Conductor of both the Santa Rosa Symphony in California and the Rhode Island Philharmonic. Quinn's engagements have included performances with many prestigious orchestras in the United States, including the Boston Pops, Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Chamber Orchestra of Philadelphia.

Equally at home in the pops and commercial world, Quinn has performed and recorded with some of the most popular artists of our time, including The Rolling Stones, The Beach Boys, Barry Manilow, Lee Greenwood, Josh Groban, Jennifer Hudson, Michael Feinstein, Tower of Power, The Indigo Girls, and Nas. As an accomplished vocalist, Quinn has also collaborated with such prominent maestros as Helmuth Rilling, Carl St. Clair, and Dan Saunders of the Metropolitan Opera. In addition to his concert work, Quinn has worked extensively in the television and recording industry, earning an Emmy nomination for the PBS special A Night at the Oscars with the Owensboro Symphony. He has made appearances on such hit television shows as Fox's GLEE, NBC's The Voice, and The Tonight Show with Jay Leno while recording on films like The Call of the Wild and Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull. He has also appeared at many of the world's major music centers and at such famed venues as the Hollywood Bowl, Walt Disney Concert Hall, and Tanglewood, where Quinn conducted the BUTI orchestra.

A native of Connecticut, Quinn pursued a bachelor of arts degree from Providence College where he was the recipient of the Leo S. Cannon award for superior achievement in the music field. He went on to earn his master's degree with honors from the Manhattan School of Music, studying conducting with David Gilbert and voice with highly acclaimed Metropolitan Opera singer Mark Oswald. He completed his doctorate in conducting at the University of Southern California's Thornton School of Music, where he studied with Larry Livingston and Jo-Michael Scheibe and was named the outstanding doctoral graduate of his class. Quinn has participated in numerous masterclasses as a conducting fellow, attending conducting institutes at the Royal Academy of Music, Eastman School of Music, and Bard Conservatory of Music. He has been mentored by such renowned conductors as Benjamin Zander, Neil Varon, and Leon Botstein. Quinn serves on the conducting faculty at the University of Southern California's Thornton School of Music and has previously served as a faculty member at Providence College.

Troy Quinn, Critical Acclaim

troyaquinn@gmail.com, www.troyquinn.com

[Dvořák, Carnival Overture, Beethoven, Symphony No. 5, Saint-Saëns, Danse Bacchanale] "It was obvious that Quinn is a gifted conductor who already has both a command of his repertory and the ability to use his baton to deliver what he wants.....it is clear from his work that he has much to say and is fully in command of the ensemble. Surprisingly and impressively, he conducted the entire evening from memory."

-Sarasota Herald-Tribune

[Haydn, Trumpet Concerto, Mendelssohn, Italian Symphony, Walton, Henry V Suite] "Quinn conducted the entire concert by memory. With no distracting score before him, he was free to communicate eye-to-eye with the players on every beat. His motions were as smooth as those of a ballet dancer."

-Juneau Empire

[Mozart, Jupiter Symphony] "The difficulty Quinn undertook was to find a fresh interpretation of an often played work...the performance was solid."

-Rochester City Newspaper

[John Williams, E.T. Suite] "Troy Quinn cut a natty figure with his dark hair and sports jacket...it was thrilling to hear the music roll forward, finding its balance like a bicycle."

-The Buffalo News

[A New Year's Eve Celebration with Bernadette Peters and the Boston Pops] "Under the baton of jovial guest conductor Troy Quinn, the first half of the program opened with Richard A. Whiting's always rousing Hooray for Hollywood, and other memorable film music."

-BroadwayWorld.com

Contact:

Troy Quinn,
Conductor

E-mail:
troyquinn@gmail.com

Website:
www.troyquinn.com

